RE: Request to Reconsider, 03-CV-19-266

Dear Mr. Bibeau,

I have received your September 10, 2019 letter requesting the Court to reconsider its September 9, 2019 Order Granting Motion to Compel Discovery.

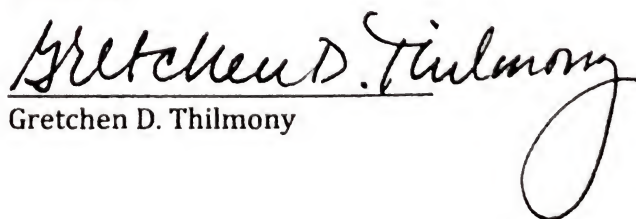

Under Minn. R. Civ. P. 33.01(b) and 33.02(c), a party is required to comply with discovery requests within 30 days unless the Court adjusts that timing. The burden is on Defendant to file a motion to stay discovery.

This Court has jurisdiction over this file, per its Order on July 2, 2019. Under Minn. R. App. P. 108.01, subd. 1, this ruling is effective unless a party seeks a stay on enforcement—as noted in this Court's Order on September 9, 2019. The burden was on Defendant to file a motion to stay enforcement of that Order.

The Court has also reviewed your memorandum of law in response to the motion to compel discovery. Although you disagree with Plaintiff's interpretation of the plain reading of the rules in question, you have not provided any legal authority supporting your interpretation.

There are no compelling reasons to reconsider granting Plaintiff's motion to compel discovery without a hearing.

Sincerely,

Gretchen D. Thilmony
